Message for U.S. Citizens
December 6, 2013
U.S. Citizen Outreach Event in Northern

U.S. Embassy Consul Rob Romanowski will be in Nkonde next week, and invites you to join him at the Zwangendaba Lodge at 1900 on Monday, December 9. He can address such topics as American citizen services and consular registration, but will be pleased to address other embassy-related concerns and questions.

If you are interested in attending, please RSVP by writing to ACSLusaka@state.gov by December 9, 2013. We hope to see you in Northern.

The consular section will also send this message out to residents of Northern Province via SMS. If you have received this email but have not received the SMS message and would like to, please notify us at ACSLusaka@state.gov and provide us with your contact information.

You can stay in touch and get updates by checking the U.S. Embassy in Zambia web site. You can also get global updates at the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Consular Affairs Web site where you can find the current Worldwide Caution, Travel Warnings, Travel Alerts, and Country Specific Information for Zambia. Follow us on Twitter and the Bureau of Consular Affairs page on Facebook as well, or download our free Smart Traveler iPhone App for travel information at your fingertips. If you don't have Internet access, you can obtain current information about safety and security by calling 1-888-407-4747 toll-free in the United States, or, for callers from other countries, a regular toll line 1-202-501-4444. These numbers are available from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday (except federal holidays).

The Embassy cannot prevent you from traveling to locations despite a Travel Warning. For your personal safety and security and the peace of mind of your family and friends, it is useful for you to notify us in advance of your travel plans via the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP).
